Welcome to the weekly emails from the Liberal Party! Hopefully your summers were filled with adventures and happiness. I am overjoyed to be the secretary for the semester and am looking forward to the coming year! Now, down to the events of the week.

We will be having our first Lib Dinner this Monday August 26th at 5:30 PM. Come join us at Yorksides for good food, merriment, and great company.

You cannot be as happy as this panda gnawing on this bamboo.

On Wednesday August 28th at 10:30 PM, join us for Bluebooking in Saybrook K51. Not know what to take? Want to know the best classes to take? Already have your schedule planned out for the rest of the year (and next year)? Come anyhow!

Wait, what classes do I need to take?

Lib Discussion will be on Thursday August 29th at 7:30 PM in the Pierson Common Room. The Libs will discuss: Does charity reinforce oppression? Does charity create dependence or does it provide a necessary 'band-aid'? Does charity reinforce the domination of the rich? Is government redistribution preferred to private charities? Can charity be truly altruistic or are they more often self-serving?

Doesn't this face make you feel all happy inside?

And for the end of the week, join us for Happy Hour at 9 PM on Saturday August 31st in Saybrook K21. Relax after the 'first' week of classes, celebrate Labor Day Weekend, meet new people, drink some booze (or not). Come by for some fun!

Did someone say PARTY?!

Contact Catherine Holland at catherine.holland@yale.edu or \(309\) 212-7426212-7426) to get let in to the events.

tl;dr

Monday - 5:30 PM Lib Dinner at Yorkside

Wednesday - 10:30 PM Bluebooking at Saybrook K51

Thursday - 7:30 PM Discussion: Does charity reinforce oppression? at Pierson Common Room

Saturday - 9 PM Happy Hour at Saybrook K21

Cheers,

Sequoia Leuba

Secretary of the Liberal Party

P.S. Lib of the Week will be starting up again. It's nice to recognize faces. Send me a picture, interests, dislikes, and a fun fact!

Read My Libs

This week, the Libs will have a full schedule of events, and we would love to see you there! So onward!

On Tuesday September 3rd, the Libs will have Lib Dinner in the back of Silliman Dining Hall at 5 PM. Munch on some food (perhaps wraps?), talk with interesting people, and basically have some great fun!

Eat your fruits and vegetables!

Following dinner, join us as we attend the Yale Political Union debate at 7 PM in SSS 114 on Resolved: Redistribution is Theft with Herman Cain. What do we owe society as we become increasingly successful? Are taxes stealing from our own hard-earned money? Contact Aia Sarycheva the Floor Leader of the Left at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu if you are interested in speaking. The Libs will be sitting in the very traditional front left of the room.

I may make this face when he is talking...

At 7:30 PM this Thursday September 5th, the Libs will have their weekly Discussion talking about "Should we blow the whistle?" in the Pierson Common Room. Does it serve a public good for classified information to remain secret? Is total transparency preferable or even possible? What are the personal responsibilities behind leaking classified information? Come by to discuss these areas and more!

Snowden? How about snow leopards?

And at the end of the week, come by for Happy Hour this Friday September 6th at 10 PM at Location TBA. Relax, kick back, drink a bit, and meet new people!

I cannot tell if the dog is tired from the eggnog or just always looks like that.

tl;dr

Tuesday - 5 PM Lib Dinner at Silliman Dining Hall; 7 PM YPU Debate Resolved: Redistribution is Theft with Herman Cain at SSS 114

Thursday - Lib Discussion: Should we blow the whistle? at 7:30 PM in the Pierson Common Room

Friday - Happy Hour at 10 PM at Location TBA

And for the first Lib of the Week, we have Nate Rein!

Interests: Russian literature, kayaking, skiing, molecular biology, having a good laugh, It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia, having a good cry, falafel, snapbacks, Milwaukee, Brie.

Dislikes: How I Met Your Mother, waiting in line, Holden Caulfield, jelly donuts, immortality

Fun Fact: Nate would be one of the super rich trust fund kids at Yale if his family did not run afoul of Kaiser Wilhelm before WWI.

Keep sending me your interests, dislikes, and a fun fact for Lib of the Week!

Cheers,

The weekly calendar for the Liberal Party's events.

On Monday September 9th at 5:30 PM, the Libs will have their weekly Lib Dinner in the Silliman Dining Hall in the back to the left. Come eat, talk, and socialize with the Libs!

Don't bite off more than you can chew!

On Tuesday September 10th, come by the Yale Political Union Debate with Gayatri Spivak, a postcolonial theorist and professor at Columbia University, on Resolved: Liberalism is Imperialism in LC 102 at 7:45 PM. Should there be an enforcer of international norms? Are western values normatively correct and should we propagate them? The Libs will be sitting in the front left of the room. Contact Aia Sarycheva the Floor Leader of the Left at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu if you are interested in speaking.

You know what they say about carrying a big stick...

Join the Libs on Thursday September 12th in the Pierson Common Room at 7:30 PM for Lib Discussion on "Should we seek to eliminate our guilty pleasures?" How do we compromise between the way we live and our political ideals? How do we face our own hypocrisy? Come for a personal and fascinating discussion!

What do you mean I should stop watching Gossip Girl?

This week we also have the Jonathan Brewster Bingham Forum on "Solutions to Global Inequality: Beyond the UN Millennium Development Goals" with Professor Thomas Pogge on Friday September 13th at 12:15 PM in the Saybrook Branford Room. Professor Thomas Pogge is the Leitner Professor of Philosophy and International Affairs and Director of the Global Justice Program at Yale. As well as publishing extensively on global justice and equality, he seeks to develop solutions to some of today's gravest moral challenges, particularly global poverty. Professor Pogge will speak on the contemporary causes of global poverty and inequality, the United Nation's Millennium Development Goals, their failure, and their potential successors. Contact Francisco at francisco.diez@yale.edu with any questions.

And on Saturday September 14th at 9 PM, join the Libs for Games Night at Location TBA. Come for the friendly competition, people, and drinks!

Your move, Ron Weasley.

tl;dr

Monday - Lib Dinner, Silliman Dining Hall, 5:30 PM

Tuesday - YPU Debate, Gayatri Spivak, Resolved: Liberalism is Imperialism, LC 102 at 7:45 PM

The weekly calendar for the Liberal Party's events.

Join us Monday September 16th in the Silliman Dining Hall at 5:30 PM for the highly traditional Lib Dinner. We will be sitting in the back left. Talk, eat, and catch up with the Libs!

What? I'm listening to my mom and eating my vegetables!

On Tuesday September 17th in LC 102 at 7:30 PM, join the Libs as we go to the Yale Political Union Debate on Resolved: Democratic Freedoms Do Not Imply Relativism with Professor Robert Kane, a Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at the University of Texas at Austin. Does living in a pluralistic society imply that you need to tolerate or respect every point of view? What is the value of engaging in opinions different than our own? Can there ever be an objectively right answer? Contact Aia Sarycheva, the Floor Leader of the Left, at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu if you are interested in speaking. The Libs will be sitting in the front left of the room.

No! I'm right! Quit barking!

Come to the Pierson Common Room on Thursday September 19th at 7:30 PM for Lib Discussion on "Should assisted suicide be legal?" Do we have autonomy over our own bodies? Is it the government's job to protect life? Do we have a 'right to die'? Come discuss policy, bioethics, and more!

And here's a picture of baby penguins! SO CUTE.

And to end the week, on Saturday September 21st, join us for an Adventure to Wooster Square! Meet the Libs at Phelps Gate at 5 PM on our outing to Pepe's and Wooster Square. Eat pizza and chat with great people!

And maybe even find some of the missing squirrels!

Cheers,

Join the Libs Monday September 23rd in the Silliman Dining Hall at 5:30 PM for Lib Dinner. Eat, mingle, and talk with the Libs! Look for us in the back left of the Silliman Dining Hall.

Have you ever seen anyone as happy as him eating pasta?

On Tuesday September 24th, the Libs will join the Yale Political Union at the unconventional time of 6:30 PM for Freshman Prize Debate on Resolved: Responsibility Ends at Our Borders. What responsibilities do we have to our nation? Is there a connection that transcends the groups we are a part of, whether automatically or by choice? Why do nations become isolationist? Freshman are highly encouraged to participate, and could win cash prizes or Union membership!

You ought to speak at YPU!

And on Thursday September 26th at 7:30 PM in the Pierson Common Room, join the Libs for Lib Discussion on "Should voting be mandatory?" How do we get election results that reflect the wishes of the entire population? Do we have a duty to vote? Does it make sense for everyone to be able to vote? Come discuss these question and more!

Whiskers for PRESIDENT!

Join the Libs on Monday September 30th at 5:30 PM in the Silliman Dining Hall for Lib Dinner. Eat, talk (perhaps about a certain finale), and catch up after the weekend. Look for us in the back left of the dining hall!

My grass! Give it back!

On Tuesday October 1st, come by LC 102 as the Libs join the Yale Political Union Debate on Resolved: Repeal the Contraception Mandate with Dr. R. R. Reno, a Catholic theologian and editor of First Things. To what extent should we protect our First Amendment liberties? Is religion above the law? How much control should the church have over the state? Contact Aia Sarycheva, the Floor Leader of the Left at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu if you are interested in speaking. Don't forget to sign in (and out) with the Liberal Party!

Also, congrats to Kar Jin Ong for winning 1st Place and Matthew Massie for winning Honorable Mention in the Freshman Prize Debate!

CONGRATULATIONS!

Come by on Thursday October 3rd to Lib Discussion in Location TBA at 7:30 PM on the correctly worded "Why do we value sports?" What do we gain from participating in sports? What social value do sports serve? Why are international sporting events such a big deal? Discuss these questions and more! Contact Catherine at \(309\)212-7426 to be let in.

Even elephants like soccer!

And on Saturday October 5th, first join us for our Picnic at East Rock. Meet the Libs at 11 AM at Phelps Gate to go on our Fall Picnic and walk over to East Rock! Don't forget to wear tennis shoes!

BYO kittens.

And then that night, join the Libs for Happy Hour in Saybrook K51 at 10 PM. Be merry and socialize!

Fall is coming!

And our Lib of the Week (which is finally returning!) is Sarah Giovanniello!

Likes: Soviet propaganda, stickers, omelets, selfies, smashing the kyriarchy, Orange is the New Black, 1950s dresses, coffee oreo ice cream, piercings, pop music, gender activism, polyglots, female rappers, pretending to be French, Docs, walking barefoot, really fat babies, the Progressive era, artichokes, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, snazzy old ladies, bow ties.

Dislikes: HUAC, Eminem, salmon colored pants, sweet potatoes, mansplainers, Crocs, wearing pants indoors, sports, the tyranny of Yale Dining, Teen Mom, the nonprofit industrial complex, institutionalized oppression, business casual, bow ties.

Fun Fact: When she was an awkward thirteen year old, Sarah was in a movie with Meryl Streep. Like legit though.

Keep sending me your Lib of the Week with likes, dislikes, and a fun fact!

On Monday October 7th in the Silliman Dining Hall at 5:30 PM, join the Libs for Lib Dinner. Catch up over the weekend, talk to everyone, and eat! We will be sitting in the back left of the dining hall.

Which one do you like better? Red or green grapes?

Join the Libs as we go to the Yale Political Union Student Debate on Resolved: Yale Should Implement A Core Curriculum on Tuesday October 8th in LC 102 at 7:30 PM. What is the value of a liberal arts education? Should we share a common education experience? Who should decide what we need to study? Sign in (and out) with the Liberal Party! We will be sitting in the front left of the room. If interested in speaking, contact Aia Sarycheva at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu and Jake Romanow at jake.romanow@yale.edu.

Resolved: Have "Playing with Kittens" be part of the Core Curriculum.

Come to the Pierson Common Room this Thursday October 10th at 7:30 PM for Lib Discussion on "When should we break the law?" Do victimless crimes exist? What makes a law unjust? When is civil disobedience necessary? Discuss your vision of justice and more!

Clearly this dog loves costumes.

On Friday October 11th at 12:30 PM in Location TBA, join us in a Jonathan Brewster Bingham Forum on Access to Early Childhood Education with All Our Kin co-founders Jessica Sager and Janna Wagner. Jessica Sager and Janna Wagner co-founded All Our Kin, a grassroots organization based in New Haven that works on early childhood education focusing on training, supporting, and sustaining child care providers. They will talk about the importance of early childhood education, whether we should aim for a unified or individually tailored education, and how to overcome the barriers of access to children with working mothers or from low-income families. Come for what is sure to be a fascinating talk!

But Mommy, why do I have to go to school?!

And on Saturday October 12th at 8:30 PM in Saybrook K21, join the Libs for Inauguration Inebriation! Hang out with the Libs before the campus-wide Inauguration Party on Old Campus. Refreshments will be served.

And you might even see some of the Libs dancing!

And for Lib of the Week, we have Adrian Lo!

He asks that you compare and contrast his long lists. Also, this picture counts as his fun fact!

Likes: Nutella, Jacques Lacan, Colleen, France, Haitian Revolution, Penguins, Opposable Thumbs, Musée d'Orsay, Diplomacy (the board game), Vinegar, Coffee, Lluís Domènech i Montaner, Albert Camus, Simon & Garfunkel, Beer, Joan Miró's Constellations, Manchester United, Goya's Black Paintings, The Beatles, Walter Benjamin, Le Corbusier, Mondrian, Pu'er Tea, Atticus's Aztec Brownies, Zou Wouki, Jazz, Reading, Marseille, Rainer Maria Rilke, Brutalism, Bach's Counterpoints, Aimé Césaire, Picasso's Guernica, Freedom of Speech, Ancient Greece, Alexander Calder, Avignon, Theater, Paul Klee, Avant-garde Cinema, Slavoj Žižek, Modernism

Come by the Silliman Dining Hall this Monday October 14th at 5:30 PM for Lib Dinner. Eat, talk about the weekend (we all have stories), and spend time with the Libs. We will be sitting in the back left of the dining hall.

What? Am I not supposed to be eating these flowers?

On Tuesday October 15th at 7:30 PM in the unconventional Sudler Hall (WLH 201), join the Libs as we attend the Yale Political Union Debate on Resolved: The American Political Process is Corrupt with Professor Lawrence Lessig from Harvard and the founder of Creative Commons. What factors contribute to corruption in the political process? How does corruption change the behavior and our trust of political figures? What would the political process look like without corruption? Join us in the front left of the room, and do not forget to sign in (and out) as this is the last debate before mid-term. Also, you can buy your YPU membership!

And even though corruption is everywhere, Scout loves America.

Join the Libs in Lib Discussion on "Should Yalies be involved in local politics?" on Thursday October 17th in the Pierson Common Room at 7:30 PM. Are Yalies residents of New Haven? What are our responsibilities to the communities around us? Should we support causes in New Haven politics? Should we vote in local elections? Join us as we debate about what our presence should be in this upcoming local election.

Are you going to campaign for Missy?

On Friday October 18th in the Yale Law School Auditorium from 6:30-8:30 PM, we will be joining the YPU again, because Stephen Colbert (!) is coming for casual talk and a question and answer event! There may be some Daft Punk or political satire, and it is going to be awesome. If you buy your YPU membership before the event, you'll be entered into a lottery for dinner with Colbert!

Who wouldn't want a kitten in each hand?

And on Saturday October 19th at 9 PM in Location TBA, join the Libs for Toasting! It is a Lib tradition that one should never miss. It is one of my favorite events of the year, and be sure to keep your night open!

No, toasting will not be like this.

And for Lib of the Week, we have Nick Eckenwiler!

See how many other Libs you can find in the picture!

Likes: Liverpool Football Club, whoever Manchester United are playing, the Bolzano-Weierstrass Theorem, DC, public transit, James Turell, George Orwell, eigenvalues, Bertrand Russell, Metro North, Amtrak, New Haven, xkcd, impressionism, Xabi Alonso, Brendan Rodgers, Lupe Fiasco, this picture, Arsenal's 8-year trophy drought, measuring success by European Cups, "AGUEROOOOO!!", anything Mario Balotelli does off the field, Bayern Munich 7-0 Barcelona, this picture, David Moyes as Manchester United manager.

Dislikes: Manchester United, people who think Lionel Messi is the greatest ever footballer, everybody applying to consulting/iBanking jobs and making me feel like I should have several interviews lined up by now, Chelsea Football Club, Roman Abramovic, the Qatar-hosted 2022 World Cup, the Brazil-hosted 2014 World Cup and the Rio de Janeiro-hosted 2016 Summer Olympics, physics envy, Continental philosophy, people who pronounce "leisure" as "leh-zhur", people who pronounce "mature" as "ma-toor", Florentino Perez, Margaret Thatcher, Clarence Thomas, Sheikh Mansour, Barcelona's and Munich's inability to beat a clearly inferior Chelsea team two years ago.

Fun fact: Was quarantined in China during the summer of 2009 for about a week, because they thought I'd been exposed to swine flu.

Mr. High Chair, I have been wrong all along. Turns out, I am adorable.

On Saturday October 2nd, join the Libs for Get Out the Vote. We will be trying to increase voter turnout from 2-5 PM. Meet the Libs at 1:50 PM at the High Street Gate. Come this very important weekend, as elections are November 5th.

Props to anyone who comes dressed like this!

In addition on October 2nd, come by Location TBA at 9 PM for Tricks and Drinks. Join us in celebration of Halloween and in going to Inferno after. Don't forget to come in costume! There may be a prize for best costume!

Looks like he had too much honey...

And for Lib of the Week, we have Catherine Holland!

Catherine taming whatever that creature is called.

Likes: Cats and Classical Music...bubble baths are nice too especially if you are reading Latin in them.

Dislikes: Christmas, Snuggies, Disney

Fun Fact: Catherine used to ride a unicycle in a circus.

After dinner, join us as we attend the Yale Political Union debate on Resolved: Reject Yale's Achievement Ethos with David Brooks, a political and cultural commentator and New York Times columnist, in LC 102 at 7:30 PM. Do we have a responsibility to make the most of our talents? Why is the achievement ethos a good thing? Is there something about going to Yale that implores us to work harder? Come for the last debate of the semester! If interested in speaking, contact Aia Sarycheva, the Floor Leader of the Left, at aia.sarycheva@yale.edu.

And you see here, this is why we must make the most of our talent of being adorable.

We will end this semester with our last Lib Discussion on "Should All Countries Be Held To The Same Environmental Standards?" this Thursday December 5th at 7:30 PM in the Pierson Common Room. Is it fair to hold all countries to the same standards? Should we be more accommodating for less prosperous countries? Contemplate these questions and more at discussion!

Look at his ears!

And for the last Lib of the Week, we have me, Sequoia Leuba!

I wore this dress the first time I spoke at YPU debate!
